

Ontario Landlord Compliance Checklist

Notices, records and follow-ups every Ontario landlord needs to get right.

This checklist summarizes general obligations under Ontario's Residential Tenancies Act, 2006. It is not legal advice. Consult a paralegal or lawyer for fact-specific guidance.

1. Tenancy setup

Get the fundamentals on paper. The Residential Tenancies Act, 2006 governs almost every lease in Ontario.

- ☐ Use the Ontario Standard Lease (Form 2229E) for any new tenancy.
It is mandatory for most residential tenancies signed after April 30, 2018.
- ☐ Last month's rent deposit only — never first-and-last-plus.
Holding a damage deposit is illegal under the RTA.
- ☐ Provide rent receipts on request, free of charge.
Required during tenancy and up to 12 months after move-out.
- ☐ Record the move-in unit condition with photos before keys are handed over.
- ☐ Confirm tenant insurance is in place (recommended, not legally required).

2. Entry & visits — 24-hour notice rules

Proper notice before entry protects the tenancy and your position at a hearing.

- ☐ Serve written notice at least 24 hours before entry.
Notice must state the reason, the date, and a time window between 8 a.m. and 8 p.m.
- ☐ Valid reasons for entry with notice:
Repairs, inspections, showings to prospective tenants, work agreed to in writing.
- ☐ Emergency entry (fire, flood, gas) requires no notice.
- ☐ Showings to prospective buyers require either consent or proper notice.
- ☐ Keep a record of every notice served — date, method, recipient.

3. Rent collection & late payments

A consistent process and clean records are what the Board relies on.

- ☐ Rent is legally due on the date stated in the lease.

- ☐ Serve an N4 (Notice to End the Tenancy Early for Non-Payment of Rent) as soon as rent is unpaid.

The tenant has 14 days to pay the arrears in full before you can file an L1.

- ☐ Never charge a 'late fee' as a separate line item.

Only interest on last month's rent deposit is permitted.

- ☐ Track every payment with amount, date, method, and balance after.

- ☐ Keep records for at least 7 years for CRA and LTB purposes.

4. Rent increases (2026)

Ontario sets a guideline percentage each year. The 2026 guideline is the figure published by the Ministry of Municipal Affairs and Housing.

- ☐ Serve an N1 at least 90 days before the increase date.
- ☐ A rent increase can only occur 12 months after the last increase or the start of tenancy.
- ☐ Above-Guideline Increases (AGIs) require an LTB application and supporting evidence.
Major capital expenses, security services, or extraordinary utility cost increases.
- ☐ Newly built units first occupied after Nov 15, 2018 are exempt from the guideline.
- ☐ Document every increase with the served N1, response, and effective date.

5. Renewals, terminations & N-forms

Use the right form. The LTB is strict about procedure.

- ☐ N4 — Non-payment of rent. 14-day cure period.
- ☐ N5 — Substantial interference, damage, or overcrowding. 7-day cure period for first notice.
- ☐ N7 — Serious impairment of safety or wilful damage. No cure period.
- ☐ N8 — Persistent late payment. Can lead to termination after one full year.
- ☐ N12 — Landlord/family/purchaser use. 60 days notice + one month's rent compensation.
- ☐ N13 — Demolition, conversion, or major repairs. 120 days notice plus relocation support.

6. Maintenance & repair obligations

The RTA requires landlords to keep the unit in a good state of repair, fit for habitation, and in compliance with health, safety, housing, and maintenance standards.

- ☐ Respond to every maintenance request in writing.
- ☐ Log the request date, the issue, the action taken, and the completion date.

- ☐ Use vetted vendors and keep invoices for at least 7 years.
- ☐ Section 22 of the RTA — substantial interference can trigger an LTB application by the tenant.
- ☐ Carbon monoxide detectors on every storey with a sleeping area are required.

7. Record-keeping schedule

Good records settle disputes. Build the habit on day one.

- ☐ Signed lease, addenda, and Form N renewals — keep indefinitely.
- ☐ Payment ledger, rent receipts — 7 years minimum.
- ☐ Maintenance and repair log — 7 years minimum.
- ☐ Entry notices and tenant communication — 2 years minimum, longer if any dispute is active.
- ☐ Insurance certificates, fire inspection reports — current plus 2 prior years.
